Focus on Stewardship - Isaiah 6:3 – “And one called to another and said: Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!” Behold the threefold Name of God! Here in Isaiah the angels cry, “Holy, holy, holy” to praise and acknowledge the Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We are baptized into this Name. We have been made a part of God's family. Now, we are called to live in harmony with our new family, to be godly and live in God's image. As God is loving, kind and generous, so are we all called to be.

About Today's Readings

When Isaiah beheld the glory of the Lord, he cried out “Woe is me!” For the unholy cannot stand in the presence of a holy God and live. (Isaiah 6:1-7) But God the Father lifted up His Son Jesus for us on the cross, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:1-17) This eternal life of Christ is given us according to the Holy Spirit's good pleasure in Baptism. “Unless one is born (again) of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.” To sinners in fear of death, the messengers of God place on our lips the living body and blood of Christ and speak His words of absolution, “Your iniquity is taken away, and your sin purged.” Having received forgiveness and life from the Father through the Son by the Holy Spirit, we join with the angels in praising the blessed Trinity, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts!” “For of Him and through Him and to Him are all things, to whom be glory forever. Amen.” (Romans 11:33-36).
